Requirements on you

The policy coverage provided, and the premium payable is specifically based on the information that you have provided to us. Therefore, all the information you provide us will form your unique demands, requirements and circumstances.

If you become aware that the information you have given to us is inaccurate or incomplete or you have any particular concerns about any of the information you have provided or should provide, before or after the start date of this insurance as shown in the period of insurance, then you must advise us to ensure the services and cover provided by your policy is unaffected. It is important at the inception and renewal of the policy, but it also applies throughout the lifecycle of the policy.

It is important to remember:

- failure to disclose every material circumstance and complete information relating to your insurance could invalidate the policy and claims may be repudiated;

- it is imperative that you fully read and check all insurance documents to ensure that you fully understand the cover, limits, terms and conditions that apply;
- ensure you are fully aware of all the policy terms and conditions of your insurance policy as failure to comply could invalidate it;
- in the event of any claim or circumstance that likely lead to a claim, you are fully aware of the claim procedures, including the prompt notification as per the policy documentation.
- as with any insurance, you have an obligation to take reasonable steps to mitigate any loss.

Once the policy has incepted, you must notify us promptly following your first awareness of a shortcoming in your work which is likely to lead to a claim against you. You must not admit that you are liable for what has happened or make any offer, deal or payment without our prior consent.

Policy length

Insurance contracts normally run for a period of 12 months and your contract period will be clearly shown in your schedule of insurance. You must tell us of any changes to your business as described in your insurance policy and we will then have the option of amending the terms of the policy or issuing you with notice of our intention to cancel it.
